

Fall Conference Sessions

Spice Up Your Delivery! - Gestures and Vocal Variety – (Friday) Power up your swing with gestures and vocal variety. Learn the keys to a great delivery

Caddy Shack Humor – Humor makes everything go down easier. This session will discuss how to construct jokes, funny stories, and draw from everyday life. Your audience will laugh all the way to the caddy shack.

Fore! Word Power – Like getting hit by a golf ball, words can leave a mark. This session will discuss the affect words can have on an audience. Learn how your choice of words can have a positive or negative on each audience member.

Hitting a Hole in One – the Inspired Swing – Be the ball. Be the ball. Some speakers seem to have the gift of inspiring their audience; they know the secrets of the inspired swing. Learn those secrets and other ways to “drive” your audience to new heights.

CHATS with the Media Tiger - The game of golf is difficult enough. Imagine getting hounded by reporters after a day on the links! This session will teach Toastmasters the most important things they need to do when talking to a reporter. This session is a must for speakers who work in public relations.

Comments from Gallery! Evaluation (panel) – Learn how to evaluate from the best in District 14. A panel discussion with contestants from District 14’s Evaluation Contest.

Finding Members – Is your club struggling with low membership? Learn how to bring new life into your club.

Moving up the Leaderboard: The CL Manual – In 2006, Toastmasters International introduced its new Communication and Leadership manual. This session will discuss the objectives of the new manual and what it takes to achieve the new CL award.

Mad Scramble: Exciting Meetings – Great meetings keep old members excited and turn guests into members. Learn how to have exciting meetings from one of the top clubs in Georgia.

Club House News: Newsletters – Keep your club members up to date with your latest club happenings!

How to be a Caddy: Mentoring – In sports, players need a good coach. Toastmaster’s members are no different. Learn techniques and ideas to become a mentor for new and experienced Toastmasters members.